A SAND BAGGER CAUGHT

One of the Men Implicated Arrested b Detective Walters.

City Detective Walters has been on the alert for the man connected with the sand bagging affair and has been shadowing John Quinn for a couple of days suspecting him of being one of the men. He arson to believe he has the right man, as Whiter, the victim of the assault recognized Quinn as the person who was with the tall man who directed Whiter to the Montana Central depot.

Mr. Walters in the course of his investitial evidence that will go hard with Quinn. It appears that Whiter, the young man who was robbed and sand bagged took up a homestead claim in the Judith county and afterwards sold out his title. With the money he moved to the new town of Chinook, and there met Quinn who was employed in a restaurant. The latter knew that Whiter had the money. Whiter started for Helena and was surprised when he arrived here to meet Quinn. The latter was "broke" and on several occasions borrowed money from Whiter to buy a meal. On one occasion he told the young man that while he was in Chinook a plot was arranged to sand bag and rob him, was arranged to sand bag and rob him, (Whiter) but owing to Quinn's efforts the plot was not put into force. It was on the ame evening of this conversation that Whiter was robbed and sand bagged.

The police officers and others have been rendering the young man assistance since his money was stolen from him.
